

THE UNION REVIEW

A publication of the Federation of Social Worker's IUE-CWA 81381

From the Desk of the President

Thank you to all the members who attended the rally to support our CPS Caseworkers.

I appreciate all the courageous individuals who spoke out about the CPS Crisis, at the meeting of the Monroe County Legislature on May 9, 2017. They voiced grave concerns regarding the damaging effects that inadequate staffing is having on the most vulnerable children in our community.

Election Committee

The election committee is looking for volunteers to work the sign in tables during a Union vote. We need members for 3 sites, CSEU, Westfall and St Paul.

Voting is conducted from 11:30 am – 2 pm, so it doesn't require a big commitment. Just an hour of your time is requested, which can be done during your lunch hour!

We also need a few people to help count the votes at the Union office afterwards. Please contact Barb Scott or email Joyce at the Union office (fswmessage@aol.com) if you are interested.

There will be a general election coming in October so please consider offering some of your time. Thanks!

In Solidarity,
Barb Scott

The Committee on Civil Rights and Equity is actively seeking members to join.

The committee will resume the difficult conversation on the division in the union and worker's rights.

Please contact the committee chair, Ketina Hogan-Anderson for additional information.

Union Strong Union Strong Union Strong

Our Union sisters Julie Garrett and Chelsey Franz recently attend the AFL-CIO WOMEN'S GLOBAL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM in NYC March 16th-March 19th. This year the program focused on eliminating gender-based violence in the workplace. Topics such as globalization and neo-liberalism were addressed; specifically focusing on how they impact the global economy and gender-based violence in the workplace. Attendees focused on recognizing and identifying power structures and building strategies to shift the power to structures that will support the labor movement and women in the workplace. Julie and Chelsey had the opportunity to attend panel sessions presented by international labor and women activists, hosted by the United Nations Annual Commission on the Status of Women.

Both came home with a deeper understanding of the global economy as well as ideas for solutions and actions that will not only advance the labor movement but help eliminate gender-based violence in the workplace. Be sure to be on the lookout for potential upcoming opportunities to get informed and involved!
