How is what you learned relevant to FSW?

Our local is surrounded by a next work of sister organizers. We have opportunity the bring other locals in to help and support each other. It was amazing to see how many women that are vested in IUE-CWA and CWA and that most of the women that are key positions had similar journeys. I also learned about the different events and projects that were and are organized that support women’s issues and labor in general. Our local was highlighted in our grassroots effort resulting in pay for retention efforts.
